battalion, First Infantry. The new captain has had thirteen years of military training, and is in every way qualified for the new position.

Major Peyton's promotion occurred during the past year, and he was promoted to the rank of captain on July 1, 1913, succeeding the late Major James E. King, who had been in the military service of the State for twenty-seven years.

The guard of twenty-four men, drawn from the ranks of the regular army, will be on duty at the new bank every night, new men are on duty.

The city's new bank, the National Bank of Charlottesville, will open its doors on September 27. Temporary quarters have been secured in the old bank building, located Main Street, soon as arrangements are complete, a modern steel frame, six-story office building will be erected and the permanent home of the new bank will be located there.

Hollis Bingham will head the new bank as president, while the cashier will be B. T. Minor, Jr., at present holder of the Merchants' National Bank of Richmond. The officers are as follows: Hollis Bingham, Jr., Thomas C. Watson, S. C. Chamberlain, M. Kaufman, J. Anderson Chisholm, John L. Livermore, W. H. Kesterson, John C. White, R. W. Hollinger, E. Joseph, J. D. Pittman, Judge G. C. W. Duke, H. S. Martin, C. W. Rogers, and J. G. Carter.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—Secretary Bryan today asked Congress for an appropriation of $100,000 to meet expenses connected with the annual census service in caring for the interests of the warring nations of Europe.

The creation of this fund will not be in the nature of an expense to the government, said Secretary Bryan, but rather in the nature of an advance made to the dead and cover outstanding claims which come to him in time of war.
